Important information

Statement of tax record

1. This statement of tax record is issued in accordance with the Procurement Connected Policy – Shadow economy – increasing the integrity of government procurement ('the Policy').
2. The requirements for a satisfactory statement of tax record are detailed in the Policy.

Limitations of information

3. This statement of tax record is based on the limited criteria as outlined in the Policy and is not approved for other purposes.
4. This statement is not an ATO determination of the entity's tax compliance.
5. This statement is not evidence of the financial viability of the entity.
6. This statement is automatically generated based on your statements and responses in the application, and the records from our systems. This may include information provided by the entity under Australia's self-assessment regime.

This document does not replace existing due diligence and checks that the Commonwealth and its contractors would normally undertake, even if the statement of tax record is satisfactory.

How long the statement is valid

7. For entities that have 4 years or more of tax records, the statement of tax record is valid for 12 months.
8. For entities with no tax records or less than 4 years of tax records, the statement of tax record is valid for 6 months.

Falsifying Commonwealth issued documents

9. If a statement of tax record is falsified and used to participate in a Commonwealth procurement process, it could constitute an offence under the Criminal Code Act 1995.
